Gen. Stannard's wound has so far healed as to permit him to visit Dr. Walter Carpenter in Burlington.

Mr. Thomas G. Richardson the Photographer, having purchased of Mr. L. J. Sweet his house and lot on Congress street, has already taken possession of the premises.

The First Congregational Church and Society of St. Albans have invited the Rev. John Quincy Bittinger, of Yarmouth, Maine, to become their Pastor at an annual salary of $1500.

The charming concert at Academy Hall on the evening of Nov. 9th was well attended, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The vocal and instrumental performances by Messrs. Moore, Havens and Cary, and by Mrs. J. S. Cary and Misses Louise Adams and Annie L. Cary, were remarkably good and the audience manifested their gratification by repeated rounds of applause—at times made too audible by the thick boots of some noisy roughs then and there present.

Without going into particulars—which the crowded state of our columns this week forbids—we give publicity to the universal sentiment that this concert was in point of taste and execution a brilliant success. We shall be glad to welcome these musicians to our village again when the weather is more propitious, and shall then expect to see an overflowing house.

The celebrated Alleghenians, Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, lately returned from a four years tour round the world, will appear at the Academy Hall on Monday evening next, Nov. 14th. This is their first appearance here after an absence of ten years and they will undoubtedly have a full attendance. The Baptist Register says: "We can conscientiously commend the Alleghenians to all lovers of good music and rational, moral amusement. Go to their concerts and take your children. We wish every one to enjoy the pleasure of hearing them."

During their Concerts in the City of New York, Miss Hiffert, of the Alleghenians, received the following notice from the Home Journal: "Be kind to the loved ones at home, as sung by Miss Hiffert, is full of that domestic kindness and affection which beautifies and christianizes the home circle; and in her rendition of the song, 'Dearest Spot of Earth,' the listener at once realizes the force of the lines:

"Music! oh! how faint, how weak!
Language fades before thy spell;
Why should I feel before thee speak
When thou canst breathe her soul so well?"

The work of improvement on the depot grounds of the Railroad Company in St. Albans is slowly going on. The rubbish and unsightly fragments of old wood and iron will be removed from sight in due time, and J. W. Hobart Esq., the Master of Transportation is determined not only to have the grounds very convenient for the transaction of business but means to keep them in order.

The 1st Vermont Cavalry, 271 men, reached Burlington, October 29th, and were received by a splendid speech of welcome by Lieut. Gov. Underwood, and an excellent supper at Drew's Hotel. They were to be mustered out soon. We design to refer to this regiment again. We miss the name of our friend, Capt. William M. Beeman among the officers. He is still languishing at Charleston, S. C., awaiting an exchange. Lieut. Sawyer of the editorial corps, an excellent officer, has been in town and seems in excellent health.

Mr. Henry Clark, the obliging Secretary of the Vermont Senate, will please receive our thanks for one House and one Senate bill which he has forwarded to this office.

Fourteen officers and 98 enlisted men of the 6th Vermont were mustered out of service by Major, (now Gen. Austine,) at Brattleboro' October 28th.

The Mendelssohn Quintette club, design to give concerts in Vermont sometime in November. Of course, they will not forget their host of friends in St. Albans.

Several articles intended for this week's issue, are unavoidably deferred.

The new railroad time card for the winter of 1864-5, of the Vermont Central and Sullivan railroad, as indicated in the official advertisement in another column, will not escape the notice of all "whom it may concern."

Below we re-publish the roster of the St. Albans Provisional Infantry, revised and corrected.

fair donations of money or goods, in order that a magnificent sum may be raised at once and the home quickly prepared for the reception of its maimed and broken down inmates.

"Donations either of money or property in aid of this piousworthy object will be received and forwarded by Francis J. Houghton, Esq. St. Albans and Rev. D. H. Buel, Burlington. The Fair will be open until the 20th of November, and donations will be very acceptable.

Col. Sam Medary died at Columbus, Ohio, on Monday last.

Within a week over 50,000 soldiers and civilians went north from Washington to vote.

Lieut. W. B. Cushing, who recently destroyed the rebel ram Albemarle, born in Wisconsin, is now a citizen of New York. He is only 22 years old, but is as brave and cool as the veteran.

The arrival of the Kersarge at Boston is improved to tender to Capt. Winslow the honor of a reception by the city authorities. This ceremony was to take place Nov. 10th at noon, in Faneuil Hall.

August Belmont, chairman of the national democratic committee, lost his vote in New York being successfully challenged for betting on the election. He lost both bet and vote.

At the recent convention of Connecticut river valley dentists, at Brattleboro, every one went for Lincoln.

Miles Gray of Lunenburg got drunk, fell off a platform six feet high, struck his head on a stone and was killed.

The 140 recruits procured for Vermont from the South, cost about $400 each, bounty and all, a very reasonable price considering that all were three years men.

Dr. M. L. Baxter, surgeon at Campbell hospital at Washington, has been presented with a fine silver service by the friends and patients of that institution.

Hiram Orcutt, for some time the principal of the Glenwood young ladies' seminary at West Brattleboro, has been elected principal of the Tilden female seminary at West Lebanon, N. H., which is to be enlarged and reopened under favorable auspices in the spring.

Mr. Haviland, an English surgeon, states that death most frequently occurs with sick persons between the hours of 8 and 12 in the morning.

"A HORSE IS LIKE A MAN."

And like a man, if he is overworked, needs care and medicine. How many times we see a horse worth two or three hundred dollars, apparently broken down by excessive work. Like the expression in Shakespeare, "each particular fair stands on end like quills on the fretful porcupine." In other words, he is out of condition. What shall we do? Give

ALDEN'S CONDITION POWDERS

They are sure, safe, and harmless. They thoroughly remove all unhealthy obstructions and cleanse the whole system, expelling inflammation, reducing a healthy and directing action upon the liver, restoring appetite, health, and renewed animation to the whole body, thereby rendering the animal capable of much greater endurance. These powders may be given with great advantage in all cases of loss of appetite, roughness of the hair or coat, stoppage of water and bowels, all coughs and colds, inflammation of the lungs and bowels, recent founders, swelling of the glands of the throat, horse distemper, hide bound, &c.

We do not recommend them to cure a confirmed case of hooves, but they will relieve it, and in recent cases effect a cure.

Farmers, Teamsters, and those having charge of horses, would save time and money by having these Powders always on hand to administer with the first symptom of decline or disease.

These powders are alike applicable to all domestic animals. They make fattening cattle thrive, and working cattle perform much better. There is nothing better for new milk cows, as they cleanse and regulate the system and appetite, and improve the quantity and quality of the milk.

The good results that follow the use of these Powders, will recommend them to everybody. Put up in large papers, with directions for use, and sold for 25 cents. For sale by L. L. DUTCHER & SON, St. Albans.

TO CLEAR THE HOUSE OF FLIES, USE DUTCHER'S CELEBRATED LIGHTNING FLY-KILLER, a neat, cheap article, easy to use. Every sheet will kill a quart. Address orders to L. L. DUTCHER & SON, St. Albans, Vt.

The Very Latest News.—The subscriber has just returned from market, and is now prepared to exhibit the latest and most desirable styles of CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS ever offered for sale in Vermont, purchased for cash, and will be sold at a very small advance from cost. The place to get the worth of your money is at No. 2 Darrow Block.

LETITIA E. FISHER, TO THE HONORABLE MANLY E. FISHER, Plaintiff, vs. F. FISHER, Defendant. Court next to be held in St. Albans, within and for the County of Franklin, on the first Monday after the second Tuesday in January next, A. D. 1865.

Your petitioner, Letitia E. Fisher, of Essex County, in the County of Franklin and State of Vermont, respectfully shows that on the 19th day of April, A. D. 1858, at Enosburgh, in the County of Franklin, she and the then Letitia E. Sadford, now Fisher, were duly joined in marriage by Manly E. Fisher, of Lawrence, in the State of Massachusetts, by Rev. Cephas H. Kent, minister of the gospel. And that she continued to reside with the said Manly E. Fisher until the 25th day of June, A. D. 1859, in the faithful discharge of all the duties imposed upon her as his wife; but that the said Manly E. Fisher, not regarding his marriage covenant with your petitioner, but in violation thereof, did, on or about the 25th day of June, A. D. 1859, desert your petitioner, and neglect and refuse to support and maintain your petitioner, and from that time forth has wholly refused to live with or support and maintain your petitioner.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that the bonds of matrimony between your petitioner and Manly E. Fisher be dissolved, and that a bill of divorce may be granted her.

Dated at Enosburgh, in the County of Franklin, this 27th day of October, A. D. 1864.

LETITIA E. FISHER, Plaintiff.
